COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, by and through their attorneys, Virginia & Ambinder, LLP, as and for their Complaint, respectfully allege as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil action pursuant to sections 502(a)(3) and 515 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, as amended, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(a)(3), 1145 (“ERISA”), section 301 of the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947, 29 U.S.C. § 185 (“LMRA”), and section 220-g of the New York Labor Law (“NYLL”), to recover delinquent employer contributions to a group of employee benefit plans and to recover delinquent contributions pursuant to a payment bond.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1367, and 29 U.S.C. §§ 185 and 1132(e)(1).

3. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 29 U.S.C. 1132(e)(2) because the Funds (as defined below) reside or may be found in this district.

THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Trustees of the New York City District Council of Carpenters Pension, Welfare, Annuity, Apprenticeship, Journeyman Retraining and Educational and Industry Funds (the “ERISA Funds”) are employer and employee trustees of multiemployer labor-management trust funds organized and operated in accordance with ERISA. The Trustees are fiduciaries of the ERISA Funds within the meaning of section 3(21) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1002(21). The ERISA Funds maintain their principal place of business at 395 Hudson Street, New York, New York 10014.

5. Plaintiff Trustees of the New York City District Council of Carpenters Relief and Charity Fund (the “Charity Fund”) are Trustees of a charitable organization established under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3). The Charity Fund maintains its principal place of business at 395 Hudson Street, New York, New York 10014.

6. Plaintiff New York City and Vicinity Carpenters Labor-Management Corporation (together, with the ERISA Funds and the Charity Fund, as the “Funds”) is a New York not-for-profit corporation.

7. Defendant Acme Skillman Concrete Co., Inc. (“Acme”) is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the state of New York. At all relevant times, Acme was an employer within the meaning of section 3(5) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1002(5), and was an employer in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of section 501 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 142. Acme maintains its principal place of business at 56-22 58th Street, Maspeth, New York 11378.

8. Defendant American Fire and Casualty Company (“American”) is a corporation authorized to do business within the insurance industry in the State of New York. American has a statutory home office at 62 Maple Avenue, Keene, New Hampshire 03431 and maintains its principal place of business at 175 Berkeley Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02116.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

9. At all relevant times, Acme was a party to or otherwise bound by a collective bargaining agreement (“CBA”) with the New York City District Council Carpenters f/k/a District Council of New York City and Vicinity of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America (the “Union”).

10. The Union is a labor organization within the meaning of section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185, and represents employees in an industry affecting commerce as defined in section 502 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 142.

11. The CBA required Acme to make specified hourly contributions to the Funds in connection with all work performed in the trade and geographical jurisdiction of the Union (“Covered Work”).

12. Acme failed to remit all required contributions to the Funds in connection with Covered Work it performed in connection with the New York City Department of Design and Construction project titled “Rehabilitation of Retaining Wall at West 155th Street between Riverside Drive and Broadway – Borough of Manhattan and the Bronx” (the “Project”).

13. American issued a payment bond guaranteeing payment of all wages and benefits owed by Acme in connection with work it performed on the Project.

14. By issuing the payment bond, American assumed liability for the payment of all contributions owed by Acme in connection with work it performed on the Project.

15. Acme failed to remit, at the least, contributions totaling $61,539.18 on the Project for the period between August 2, 2016 through April 11, 2017.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF AGAINST VREX

Unpaid Contributions Under 29 U.S.C. § 1145

16. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein.

17. Section 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1145, provides that employers “obligated to make contributions to a multiemployer plan under the terms of the plan or under the terms of a collectively bargained agreement shall . . . make such contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plan or such agreement.”

18. The CBA requires that Acme make contributions to Plaintiffs for all Covered Work it performed on the Project.

19. Acme has failed to remit contributions to the Funds in connection with all Covered Work it performed on the Project.

20. Pursuant to the CBA and ERISA sections 502(a)(3), 502(g)(2), and 515, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(a)(3), (g)(2) and 29 U.S.C. § 1145, Acme is liable to Plaintiffs for: (1) its unpaid contributions on the Project; (2) interest on the unpaid contributions; (3) an amount equal to the greater of the interest on the unpaid contributions or liquidated damages in an amount generally not in excess of 20 percent of the unpaid contributions; (4) reasonable attorneys’ fees, audit fees, and collection costs incurred by Plaintiffs in this action; and (5) such other legal or equitable relief as the Court deems appropriate.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF AGAINST VREX

Violation of Collective Bargaining Agreement Under 29 U.S.C. § 185

21. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein.

22. Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185, authorizes the Plaintiffs, as third-party beneficiaries to the CBA, to file a federal lawsuit regarding an employer’s violation of that CBA.

23. Acme violated the terms of the CBA when it failed to make all contributions due and owing for work it performed on the Project.

24. As a result of Acme's violation, Plaintiffs are entitled to damages and other equitable relief pursuant to section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF AGAINST DEFENDANTS

Violation of NYLL § 220-g

25. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein.

26. New York Labor Law § 220-g provides that an employee that furnished labor to either the contractor or subcontractor may bring an action to recover unpaid wages and supplements, including interest, against the contractor, subcontractor-employer or bonding company.

27. As supplemental benefit funds entitled to receive payments of supplemental benefits on behalf of Acme's employees, Plaintiffs are entitled to recover any underpayments for work performed by said employees on the Project.

28. By issuing the bond, American assumed joint and several liability with Acme to pay any and all wages and supplements due and owing as a result of Acme's failure to pay for work performed on the Project.

29. Acme failed to make all supplemental benefits payments to Plaintiffs for work performed by its employees on the Project.

30. In accordance with NYLL § 220-g, this action has been brought within one year of the date of the last alleged underpayment.

31. Therefore, Defendants are required to make payment to the Plaintiffs for the amounts due and owing, plus interest, on the Project.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF AGAINST DEFENDANTS

Common Law Claim Against the Bond

32. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein.

33. American issued a common-law bond on the Project.

34. Pursuant to the common-law bond, American guaranteed the payment of wages and benefits to Acme's employees on the Project and thereby assumed joint and several liability with Acme to pay any and all wages and benefits due and owing as a result of Acme's failure to pay benefits for work performed on the Project.

35. As supplemental benefit funds entitled to receive payments of supplemental benefits on behalf of Acme's employees, Plaintiffs are entitled to recover any underpayments for work performed by said employees.

36. Acme failed to make all required supplemental benefits payments to Plaintiffs for work performed by its employees on the Project.

37. Therefore, under the common-law bond and pursuant to the principles of common-law suretyship, American is required to make payment to the Plaintiffs for all contributions due and owing, plus interest, on the Project.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court:

- i. Award judgment in favor of Plaintiffs and against Acme for its failure to pay Plaintiffs all contributions required by the CBA and/or for its failure to pay Plaintiffs all contributions owed on the Project;
- ii. Order Acme to produce all certified payroll receipts for the Project to Plaintiffs so that Plaintiffs may complete delinquency calculations;

- iii. Order Acme to pay Plaintiffs all delinquent contributions, interest on unpaid contributions, liquidated damages, attorneys' fees, and audit costs/collection costs incurred by Plaintiffs;
- iv. Award judgment in favor of Plaintiffs and against American for the amount of all contributions owed by Acme for work it performed on the Project, plus interest; and
- v. Award Plaintiffs such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
